

CubelQ in 15th Bank Management Conference

CubelQ supports the 15th Bank Management Conference, titled "Openness, Innovation, Collaboration" by Boussias Communications' Banker's Review on Tuesday, November 14th, 2017 at the Divani Caravel Hotel, Olympia Hall, in Athens.

The Bank Management Conference's ongoing purpose is to present the international and digital trends that define the future of retail and digital banking.

Key Issues addressed this year:

- » Platformization & the (non) bank of the future
- » AI, bots & Blockchain: Disrupting the banking services
- » Open banking & Legacy systems: Parallel lives (?)
- » What do customers expect from established banks against their FinTech competitors?

If you attend the conference, we will be happy to meet you and discuss how CubelQ solutions can benefit your business.
