CubelQ Announces Extension of Cooperation Agreement with Promisec Ltd.

Athens, GR, December 29, 2008 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, today announces extension of cooperation agreement with Promisec Ltd., a leading provider of clientless endpoint security management (CESM) technology.

Following a successful year with a number of Spectator Professional™ installations in financial institutions and enterprises in Greece, Promisec and CubelQ agreed to extend their cooperation to cover the Bulgarian and Rumanian markets.

Over the next years the demand for security software solutions in the region will increase considerably due to new security and compliance regulation enforcement. The presentation of cost effective, proven technology, security software from Promisec together with extensive security expertise from CubelQ will benefit the local companies and cover a significant part of the local markets demand.

Under the extension of the cooperation agreement CubelQ will promote, market and resell Promisec's security products, Spectator Professional™, INNERspace™ and Promisec Asset Management (PAM) to banks, financial institutions, service bureaus, enterprises and government organizations in the Bulgarian and Rumanian market leveraging its local reseller and systems integrator network.
