CubelQ participated in 2008 banking conference

Athens, GR, December 4, 2008 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, participated, as a sponsor, to 2008 annual banking conference.

2008 banking forum held on December 1st at the International Conference Centre of the Athens Music Hall (Megaron). The conference is addressing the Greek banking industry, attracting more than 500 high-ranking executives from banks and financial institutions operating in Greece as well as from banking systems vendors and advisory services organizations. In its 8th year, this annual conference is dedicated to the management practices that will lead banks out of the prevailing uncertainty and help them make the right choices for a profitable future.

The conference was separated in four sections: “New Revenue Streams”, “Simplification, Standardization, Cost Control”, “Risk Management & Governance” and “Strategy”. CubelQ participated in the “New Revenue Streams” section panel discussion; contributing its experience and know-how on developing new revenue streams in the retail banking industry.

In parallel, on the exhibition hall, CubelQ presented its newest instruments for new revenue streams in retail banking: “SMS Authentication, Notification and Alarm System – SANAS™” and CIIA/EMV^{g2} the latest release of its flagship product “Card Instant Issuance System – CIIS™” that enables the issuance of EMV cards at remote locations such as bank branches and merchant outlets.
