CubelQ Announces HID Approve™ Version 3.0

[EN] Athens, GR, December 4th, 2017 - CubelQ Limited, an IT company provider of software solutions and systems for financial, banking and corporate institutions, announces HID Approve™ version 3.0.

HID Approve™ 3.0 is a next-generation multi-factor authentication solution that combines the security of public key-based cryptography with the convenience of mobile push notifications. HID Approve™ delivers a simple and secure way for users to authenticate and verify their transactions with their mobile device.

With HID Approve™ 3.0 Mobile Authentication Application end-users can use Touch ID, Face ID, or Fingerprint authentication to protect their HID Approve credentials. This can improve security by ensuring the use of an additional factor of authentication when using HID Approve while maintaining a convenient experience for the end-user.

Together with HID Approve™ 3.0 we are also pleased to announce the availability of the HID Approve™ 3.0 SDK for iOS and Android. The HID Approve™ SDK enables customers to integrate all the security benefits of HID Approve™ directly into their own business mobile applications.
